

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS REGARDING SCHOLARSHIPS

1. Can I enter one essay or piece of art for all of the scholarships?
No, all of the scholarships have different requirements, so please read the criteria carefully.
2. How do I know what the Judges are looking for in entries?
Each scholarship has instructions and suggestions. For further assistance, look at the 2019 ECOC Essay Rubric on the scholarship page.
3. Should I have someone proofread my entry or critique my art or performance ahead of time?
Yes, that is always a good idea. Also re-check the Judging Criteria, and if your submission is written, the MLA guidelines?
4. What is MLA
MLA means Modern Language Association, a set of rules for margins, font size, spacing, etc. for your writing. Please go to link for complete information – <http://mlaformat.org/the-format-of-the-research-paper/>.
5. Can I just mail in my application?
NO. You must follow the instructions for uploading your application unless the instructions for that particular scholarship tells you to do otherwise.
6. If my submission is a piece of art or a performance, then I can't upload that? What do I do?
If your submission is a piece of art, then you MUST photograph your art and upload the photo. If your submission is a performance, then you must upload either a script or video of your submission, whichever is most appropriate.
7. What should I do with my art work for the day of the Summit?
Take it to the Scholarship Table that will be located close to the registration tables on the morning of the Summit.
8. If I'm performing, how will I know when and where?
You will receive a phone call before the Summit giving you the details of when and where.
9. Do I have to attend the Summit in order to be eligible to win a scholarship?
YES – There are no exceptions. Please make arrangements with employers ahead of time so you have the day off. You will need to make a choice between attending other events and competing for an ECOC Scholarship.
10. If I apply for a scholarship, am I automatically registered for the Summit?
NO – you must register for the Summit AND fill out the registration for the scholarship as well as upload the scholarship.
11. When is the latest that I can upload my scholarship entry?
12-23-18
12. What if I still have unanswered questions?
Email the scholarship chair at ecocscholarships@gmail.com.
