

PERPETUAL CONSECRATION Lesson 2

1. Who is speaking in Jeremiah 29:11, and why is that important?
_____
2. What does it mean when God says, “I know the thoughts that I think toward you”?
_____
3. What are the two types of thoughts God contrasts in this verse?
_____
4. What does “peace” mean in this context?
_____
5. Why does God emphasize that His thoughts are “not of evil”?
_____
6. What is meant by “an expected end”?
_____
7. How does this verse apply even during difficult seasons or trials?
_____
8. What was the historical situation of the people when this was spoken?
_____
9. How can a believer align their life with God’s plan according to this promise?
_____
10. What personal declaration can you make based on Jeremiah 29:11?
_____

“I am not forgotten. I am not abandoned. God has a plan for me—plans of peace, purpose, and power. My future is secure in Him!”