Washington Township Republican Organization Announces Council Candidates for November 2018 Election - “The Super Team” - Super • Pacewic • Spinelli “Common Sense, Smart Solutions” for Washington Township

(JULY 20, 2018 - TURNERSVILLE, NJ) –

The Washington Township Republican Organization proudly announces three candidates for the November 2018 election for Washington Township Council. As a Faulkner Act municipality, Washington Township is governed by a mayor and 5 council members, allowing Washington Township council the right of initiative and referendum in proposing ordinances directly introduced by the people and for the people without the actions of the local governing body. With three of the five council seats up for election, “The Super Team” - Super,

Pacewic and Spinelli will be running on a platform focusing on openness, accountability and honesty in government while sharing information with citizens of Washington Township as part of their “Common Sense, Smart Solutions” initiative.

Richard A. Super

A resident of Washington Township for over 10 years, Richard A. Super is originally from Philadelphia, PA. Richard comes from a family background of highly ranked military veterans. Richard’s grandfather served in World War II receiving four Bronze Stars. A Bronze Star is a United States Armed Forces decoration for heroic achievement and service in a combat zone. Richard’s father and father-in-law both served in the Vietnam War and his father-in-law is a decorated Marine Corp captain awarded the Bronze V or Valor Award. Richard’s daughter is currently enlisted in the Army National Guard. Richard attended Stockton State College and has extensive international business experience before becoming a business owner. Richard is currently a Director of the New Jersey Better Business Bureau. He volunteers his time to sports programs at his oldest daughter’s high school and maintains a position on the school board where his two younger children attend. He volunteers as a STEM program leader and has been a local Cub Scout leader. He is married with two daughters and a son.

“I am excited at the opportunity to run for Washington Township Council,” said Richard. “Washington Township used to be called a Premier Community. It seems like somewhere along the way we lost that image. In fact, this slogan was removed from our water tower,” said Richard. Regarding economic development in Washington Township and the focus on bringing in new businesses both large and small, Richards says, “I have always wondered why Washington Township residents must drive to Cherry Hill to shop.”

"Over the past 23 years, Washington Township has evolved from the "Premier Community" to a community in decline evident by the declining economic environment with many empty store fronts and the increased drug use in our community resulting from poor fiscal responsibility in our Township," said Vin. "The current Washington Township government acts in a non-transparent manner and has shown an unwillingness to fix these problems. I want to give back to our community by running for Washington Township City Council, leveraging my professional experiences, and bring back Washington Township as the "Premier Community" it once was."
