

Nusrat Khan MD, MBA, CQM

Dr. Khan is uniquely double board certified in Internal Medicine and Pediatrics

Dr. Khan has been practicing medicine for over 15 years and in 2017, celebrated 10 years in Weatherford and as the Medical Director of Medpedis Medical Clinic, PA.

He was educated in North Carolina where he completed his early education, college, and medical school. He completed specialty training and board certification at the renowned "Cleveland Clinic Foundation" (Ranked top ten hospitals for Ten years in a row by US News & World Report). He and his wife Stephanie now live in Benbrook with their two sons.

While in Illinois, Dr. Khan served as medical director of the Regional Diabetes Center and Cardiac Intensive Care Unit. He was on faculty at Rush University Medical Center, Chicago. He continues to enjoy teaching Resident Physicians and Physician Assistant students from University of North Texas Health Sciences Center.

He was named Preceptor of the Year in 2010. He has served as Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, and Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor, Department of Physician Assistant studies at University of North Texas Health Sciences Center.

Dr. Khan currently maintains medical staff privileges at:

Baylor Scott & White All Saints Medical Center

Ft. Worth Medical City Fort Worth

Medical City Weatherford