PRESENTATION OF REGISTRATION

To facilitate the registration and the selection process, only works submitted through registration to the YBTFG platform will be accepted, through the registration form:

<https://forms.gle/o8KEXPBP43zpMK57>

REGISTRATION RIGHTS

Participants must make a registration for each person or organization category presented, being able to present as many people or organizations as they deem appropriate.

The same person or organization can be registered in more than one category, although each registration will be independent. In this case, it must be registered and complete the form for each category to which it is presented.

THE INTERNATIONAL JURY

The Jury does not include any member of the organization or members of a formal or commercial nature. All members are appointed exclusively by the most prestigious organizations in the profession. To ensure that the evaluation of works is carried out by true experts, the categories have been grouped by areas of specialization. Thus, each area has a specific Jury made up of specialized professionals.

The jury is sovereign, and its verdict is final.

THE SDG DECADE OF ACTION AWARDS-YBTFG

A single "DECADE OF ACTION" Award (trophy and certified diploma) and up to 3 winners, 1 for each category, is awarded. The winners receive their awards in person at the address indicated in their registry or digitally, depending on the contingency of COVID-19 at the time of the award.

LIABILITY AND ASSIGNMENT OF CONTENT RIGHTS

By submitting a work, the participant declares that it is an original work of his / her authorship, the contents of which do not and cannot damage the rights of third parties. In the event that the work incorporates creations of third parties (such as artistic works, photographs, images of any kind, fragments of another work, and any protected by intellectual property), the participant declares that they have the corresponding authorizations and licenses. to be able to incorporate said creations into your work, directly from their legitimate owners or licensees.

In the act of applying for the work, the participant grants Youth Building The Future Global the right to publish it, exclusively for promotional purposes of the contest, at an international level, completely free of charge, without any restriction or reservation, assuming the author of the work full responsibility for any claim that YBTFG or its allies may receive as a result of the publication of the work. The participant is informed that YBTFG will reject any type of responsibility regarding the exploitation or dissemination of the proposed projects.

The organization of the YBTFG Awards will not judge the works, neither to determine if they are worthy of recognition nor to determine any other question, therefore, in the face of claims of any kind, it will not take any action or arbitration that implies a position in favor or in against a participant or who could question the verdict of the jury.

WHAT ARE THE "SDG DECADE OF ACTION AWARDS-YBTFG?"

The "SDG DECADE OF ACTIONS AWARDS-YBTFG" are the international awards for sustainability participation, which allow independent individuals, studios, agencies, offices and professionals to measure themselves against their peers from all over Latin America.
