CARRILEA'S CORNER

Hi Grace Family,

These first few weeks of our Seasons of Grace and Faces of Our Faith series have been both fun and inspiring. I hope you've enjoyed them as much as I have! I'm sad to miss this Sunday as we hear from some fantastic people with the Table of Reconciliation. I hope that hearing from these Statesville "Faces of Faith" reminds you that we all have a part to play in God's story of love.

I look forward to hearing all about it!

Our family will be away this week at the beach with my extended family. With cousins and loved ones spread across the country, we try to gather for a beach week every two years—it's a time I treasure deeply.

I also hope you'll consider showing up—whether in Statesville or wherever you are—for a No Kings protest this Saturday. The church is called to be a voice that critiques power and stands with the marginalized. This isn't about who holds political office or which party is in control. It's about our responsibility, as people of faith, to speak out when power is used to harm others.

With love and hope,
Carrilea
