

STAYING IN TOUCH...
HAPPENINGS WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY OF FAITH

Steve's Corner

Dear Grace, I want to begin thanking the Worship and Stewardship Boards for all their work to get us ready to worship safely this past week. What a beautiful day we had ! Also want to thank the Stewardship Board for a year's work to make our church so beautiful inside and out. A special shout out to Eddie Lippard who worked tirelessly to get our campus looking so great.

Let Eddie know your gratitude.

For this Sunday's Congregational Meeting right after 10 am worship, a lot of work is going on to help people be part of it and vote even if they cannot be there. We need as full a participation as possible to make the best decisions as a church. Stay tuned for information.

This Sunday our lectionary text is from Acts 10, verses 9-16, 34-5 and 44-48. The title of the sermon is: "From Archie Bunker to Apostle of Inclusion ". It's about the next conversion Simon Peter needed to overcome his biggest prejudice. It's about what we are all working on as persons and as the church under the prodding of Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

See you Sunday! Steve
