

STAYING IN TOUCH...

HAPPENINGS WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY OF FAITH

Steve's Corner

Dear Grace, as we walk through this most Holy Week toward Easter morning, we have these services to guide us: Maundy Thursday Service at 6pm. This service begins around tables set with light Mediterranean food, as those at the Last Supper may have eaten. Then we will move to the garden at the front of the sanctuary for Communion, then leave in silence and darkness.

Sunday morning we will have our Easter Sunrise Service at 7 am at the Labyrinth. Bring flowers to place on the lattice work there.

Then our Easter Sunday service at 11 am will feature as our wonderful tradition our Choir, as Nancy Davis and LeAnda Barnard have created the Easter Cantata! The scripture texts for your preparation for Easter are: Mark 16: 1-7; and 1 Corinthians 15: 20-22; 51-2; and 58. Take a few moments on Saturday to read them. Please note : There will be no Sunday School at 10 am on Easter.

We are also having our Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday with the neighborhood children invited to join our children (Big people can come too!) And the day before, we invite you to help deliver Meals on Wheels on Good Friday.
(See the details elsewhere in the Midweek).

Come join us in as many of these services as you can for a week of deep spiritual meaning.
