

STAYING IN TOUCH...

HAPPENINGS WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY OF FAITH

Steve's Corner

Dear Grace, Sue and I had a wonderful trip to Louisville and my old church, Crescent Hill Baptist, for the Symposium on John Claypool. And! We are looking forward to being back this Sunday. Worship will wrap up our Season of Grace emphasis on writing a Grace Proclamation under the banner: "Here We Walk!" With the artistic help of Gina and Jenn, our proclamation will be in the form of a fingerprint made up of the key words and phrases we talked together about all summer. What is the identifying finger print of our church? How do we want to leave our fingerprint on the community around us? Those are the two great questions.

As part of the day's event, we are inviting you before or after worship to place your fingerprint on the boards which will become a bench outside our church. There will be paint provided to do so! Add your fingerprint to the fingerprint of the church!

The sermon is built around the ministry of the prophet Jeremiah. The title is: When A Prophet Brings Hope For The Future." It is God's Word to us at Grace too! The text for the day is Jeremiah 32: 6-15.

I'll meet you at the door, Steve
