

CARRILEA'S CORNER

Blessing the Dust For Ash Wednesday

All those days
you felt like dust,
like dirt,
as if all you had to do
was turn your face
toward the wind
and be scattered
to the four corners

or swept away
by the smallest breath
as insubstantial—

did you not know what the Holy One
can do with dust?

This is the day
we freely say
we are scorched.

This is the hour
we are marked
by what has made it
through the burning.

This is the moment
we ask for the blessing that lives within
the ancient ashes,
that makes its home
inside the soil of this sacred earth.

So let us be marked
not for sorrow.
And let us be marked
not for shame.
Let us be marked
not for false humility
or for thinking
we are less than we are

but for claiming what God can do
within the dust,
within the dirt,
within the stuff
of which the world
is made
and the stars that blaze in our bones
and the galaxies that spiral inside the smudge
we bear.
