

STAYING IN TOUCH...
HAPPENINGS WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY OF FAITH

Carrilea's Corner

Sunday I will be continuing our series on the Lord's prayer and will be exploring "Our Daily Bread"—what it means to trust God for what we need each day and how we, as a community, can embody that provision for one another.

This Sunday evening, we'll gather for a potluck—a time to share a meal, connect, and deepen our sense of community. We'll also discuss our social media presence and the recordings we've been creating from Sunday worship. In other words, we'll be talking about our digital front door—how we communicate who we are and what we're about to the wider community. Bring a dish if you can, but most of all, bring yourself!

Also- side note: I'm facilitating a webinar this Thursday at noon (March 20th at 12pm). Faith Communities and the Youth Mental Health Crisis. Here is the link to register if anyone is interested.
