

CARRILEA'S CORNER

Dear Grace Family,

I missed you all on Sunday! But I will admit I really enjoyed a morning at home in front of the fire with the kids. The weather has a way of slowing us down. It interrupts our plans. It says, quite literally: be still. I hope that a wintry Sunday morning offered you a moment of sabbath and rest—a pause in the midst of the swirl.

I'm not always that consistent with taking a sabbath each week. It's ironic how hard it is to take a day off from being "productive". Do you regularly take a sabbath?

Looking ahead, I want to invite you into another kind of spiritual practice: showing up with love. This Valentine's Day, Repairers of the Breach is convening a Love Forward March in Raleigh—an interfaith, nonviolent movement rounded in love, justice, and moral clarity. In a time when harm is being organized and amplified in our communities, people of conscience and people of faith cannot be neutral. We are called to defend the vulnerable, speak truth to power, and mobilize for justice, mercy, and love—not hate. To learn more about the vision behind the event,

If anyone is interested in joining us we are arranging bus transportation from this area.

Stay safe and warm,

Carrilea
