

SJC Junior Coaches Code of Conduct

The Snohomish Junior Cheer Coaches Code of Conduct emphasizes leadership through fairness, consistency, and positive role modeling. Coaches are expected to:

1. Lead by Example: Display a positive attitude, sportsmanship, and treat all athletes with respect.
2. Promote Fairness: Adhere to the rules, ensuring all athletes have the opportunity to learn and excel.
3. Support Athletes: Ensure athletes are physically and mentally prepared.
4. Demonstrate Integrity: Avoid arguing with parents, officials, or other coaches, set a good example, and maintain safety.
5. Teach Life Values: Foster responsibility, teamwork, discipline, leadership, and good citizenship.
6. Junior Coaches will work together with the Head Coaches to promote a safe and fun environment and to ensure a memorable and positive experience for their cheerleading squad.

Summary:

The overall message is to act with integrity and kindness, treating others as you want to be treated. Coaches should prioritize the well-being of the athletes in a safe and supportive environment, teaching not only cheerleading skills but also important life lessons like responsibility, discipline, leadership, and good citizenship. Positive influence is a key role in shaping young individuals.

This Code of Conduct provides clear guidelines to ensure coaches are fulfilling their responsibilities both as cheerleading mentors and role models.
