Why Canadian PR & Citizenship

Tax benefits - with American citizenship you must pay income tax no matter where you earn your income. In Canada, you may report your income but no income tax on money earned as a non-resident

Immediate access to doing business in the US, the EU & the world- with your Canadian company, you have access to 15 free trade agreements and 51 countries with lower taxes, less regulations and the trade commissioner service to help you expand globally.

Licenses & Associations

Leverage the Canadian brand and stability for your business and family. Canada's S&P credit rating and stability is among a handful of countries with a AAA rating. The United States sits at AA+. During the 2008 great recession, Canada's prudent fiscal and monetary policy allowed it to have the lowest economic decline in the G8.

Free world class healthcare and education until grade 12 for your family. Domestic University and College tuitions rates for your family upon permanent residency, with savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

How the program works: timelines & requirements
