

TIFA Life: A Safe and Supportive Home for Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children (UASC)

Who Are We?

TIFA Life provides safe, high-quality accommodation for Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children (UASC), offering a warm welcome, essential support, and a structured pathway to independence. We work closely with local authorities, social workers, and support services to ensure each young person has access to the resources they need to settle, integrate and thrive.

Our Accommodation

Our homes are comfortable, safe, and well-equipped to help young people settle in quickly and build independent living skills.

Every Young Person Receives:

- Fresh Bedding & Towels - A duvet, pillow, fitted sheet, spare bedding, bath towel, and hand towel.
- Welcome Pack (Food & Essentials) - Bread, milk, cereal, pasta, rice, tinned goods, tea, coffee, sugar, and toiletries.
- Kitchen Starter Pack - Plate, bowl, cutlery, mug, glass, saucepan, frying pan, chopping board.

- Laundry & Cleaning Pack - Washing powder, washing-up liquid, sponge, tea towel, bin bags, toilet rolls.
- WiFi Included - Fast broadband with simple connection instructions.
- Access to Entertainment & Social Connection - Communal spaces include board games, TV, and streaming services.

Tailored Support

TIFA Life provides tailored support that empowers young people to develop key skills while ensuring their safety and well-being.

Our support includes:

- Daily well-being check-ins with staff.
- Assistance with independent living skills such as cooking, budgeting, and household management.
- Guidance on accessing education, ESOL classes, and employment pathways.
- Support with local integration, including cultural orientation and community engagement.
- Help with navigating essential services, such as healthcare, banking, and legal processes.
- Emotional and social support through signposting to mental health and specialist services.

For Social Workers: Why Choose TIFA Life?

We understand the responsibility of placing vulnerable young people in the right environment. Our offering is designed to provide:

- Cost-effective, high-quality accommodation
- Offering significant savings against other provisions whilst still providing exceptional levels of support
- A structured pathway to independence
- Safe and well-managed properties
- Flexibility to adjust support as required
- Accommodation tailored for UASC needs
- A culturally inclusive, welcoming space
- Different options for UASC who are pre and post 18, with or without leave to remain

For the Young Person: What You Can Expect

At TIFA Life, we want to help you feel at home. When you stay with us, you will:

- Have your own room in a shared, friendly home.
- Receive a Welcome Pack with food, toiletries, and household essentials.
- Be supported in learning life skills like cooking and managing money.
- Have access to education, training, and activities to help you plan for your future.
- Be part of a safe and inclusive community where you can feel secure and welcome.
- Enjoy access to entertainment such as TV, board games, and streaming services in communal areas.

Additional Benefits for Young People

To make sure each young person feels comfortable and supported, we also provide:

- Access to a mentor or support worker - Someone to check in with for advice and guidance.
- Financial guidance - Basic budgeting support and information on financial independence.
- Job & training support - Help finding apprenticeships, employment, and further education opportunities.
- Gym membership or home gym equipment - Supporting physical health and well-being.
- Outdoor and social spaces - Including gardens, seating areas, and recreational activities.

How to Refer a Young Person

We welcome referrals from social workers, local authorities, and partner organisations.
