Liam Fecteau:

From the first time I stepped onto the ice as a timid three year old, hockey has provided me great enjoyment. It has played an important role in shaping my character as a person and player. As I developed on and off the ice, I knew that one day I wanted to play hockey in college. Being able to play in a Junior Hockey Program is an important step to help me achieve my goal. When I evaluated different Junior Hockey Programs that were interested in me, I was looking for a successful program and experienced coach who will help me develop to my full potential. I chose to play for the Bridgewater Bandits Junior Team and Coach Scott Drevitch. I am grateful for this opportunity and excited to continue to develop as a person and player for the Bridgewater Bandits Junior Hockey Team.
