LAS VEGAS –The Ability Center of Southern Nevada is proud to announce Aristocrat Gaming's $10,000 investment to empower people with disabilities through fitness, with the ultimate goal of developing essential skills needed to live independent lives.

“The Ability Center’s mission to make a positive difference in the lives of people with disabilities has inspired our support and engagement,” said Oriana Branon, vice president of Communications and Corporate Affairs, Aristocrat Gaming. “Through this investment in the community, we hope to see more people with disabilities receive the opportunity they deserve to experience fitness activities designed especially for them.”

Aristocrat Gaming presented the $10,000 check during a Friday Night Fitness Event at The Ability Center. They had the opportunity to volunteer and experience the joy and fun of Hip-Hop Dance and Karate Fit with the members of The Ability Center who deeply appreciate the opportunity.

“We have so many families who want to provide this experience for their loved ones,” shared Chris Salas, Founder of The Ability Center of Southern Nevada. “We need more companies to step up like Aristocrat Gaming to provide fitness specifically designed to empower people with disabilities.”
