

Legislative Recap: Week of May 3rd

The legislature returned to Nashville on Monday with plans to consider a host of bills funded in the $42 billion budget passed last week, alongside a handful of other heavily discussed bills. By late Wednesday evening, the legislature had completed their business for the year and adjourned until noon on January 11th, 2022.

End of Session Legislative Recap

The 112th General Assembly began the year with much uncertainty after passing a bare bones budget last year before abruptly adjourning amidst a global pandemic. They began the year by convening for a special session limited to addressing education related issues. Upon completion of the first Extraordinary Session of 2021 the legislature resumed their regular session, but they were quickly met with a host of other abnormal circumstances, including severe flooding and a winter storm event that sidelined them for an entire week. Despite the challenges, the legislature came together to dredge through this session. Ultimately, over 600 pieces of legislation were passed this session, including a $42.6 billion balanced budget. Amongst the bills passed were HB1069/SB590 by Representative Eldridge/Senator Jackson, which permits TRICOR to construct and sale goods manufactured by inmates to governmental entities if the sale is in the best interest of the state and does not unfairly compete with private sector businesses. Although the passed budget slightly varies from the Governor’s originally proposed budget amendment, its spirit remained intact. Some of the most notable items included in the passed budget were:

- $931 million for capital maintenance and improvements
- $250 million investment in a Mental Health Trust Fund
- $250 million investment for the legacy pension fund
- $145 million for air and rail transportation infrastructure
- $100 million for broadband expansion
- $100 million to the state’s rainy-day fund
- $100 for local infrastructure grants

While passing a balanced budget is the General Assembly’s primary focus each year, passing over 600 bills in under 5 months requires immense determination and commitment. The legislature proved up to the challenge by passing a plethora of significant bills this session, including nearly all of the administration’s bill package. One of the most anticipated items included Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) reform to address the $700+ million reserve. Another much anticipated component to the 2021 legislative session was Governor Lee’s criminal justice reform measures. The criminal justice reform package was headlined by 2 bills, the “Reentry Success Act” and “Alternatives to Incarceration.” The Governor’s “Reentry Success Act” aims at improving outcomes for formerly incarcerated persons by increasing transparency in parole and enhancing practices that support successful post-release. The “Alternatives to Incarceration” bill expands treatment services and community-based supervision for offenders as alternatives to incarceration. Other initiatives hailing from the Governor’s office included an entertainment industry tax credit for film productions in Tennessee, the Tennessee Apprenticeship Act which expands access and improves quality of apprenticeship programs, and the Foster Youth Reach Act which provides higher education support for youth aging out of the foster care system through a pilot outreach program.

Headlines from this Session:

Tennessean: In whirlwind special session, Tennessee lawmakers approve $160M package of education bills aimed at learning loss, literacy

The Tennessee General Assembly approved a $160 million package of bills Thursday night and Friday morning, legislation aimed at tackling student learning loss during the pandemic, the state's stagnant literacy rates and how schools will handle standardized testing after a year of academic disruptions. The education initiatives, introduced by Gov. Bill Lee, were finalized in a whirlwind, four-day special session that allowed lawmakers to quickly approve major programs for schools before taking on other bills. It was the third special session Lee has called since taking office in 2019.

Tennessean: GOP legislators, Gov. Bill Lee have finally agreed on a plan to spend $700M TANF reserve

An agreement has been reached between Gov. Bill Lee's administration and a duo of Republican legislators who crafted their own proposal for how to spend down the state's massive reserve of grants for poor working families. That means the public, for the first time, has a solid idea of what Tennessee will do to put to use more than $700 million in unused Temporary Assistance for Needy Families grants — federal dollars the state receives annually but that have accumulated in recent years without a spending plan.

Local Memphis: Tennessee entertainment bill headed to Gov. Lee's desk for signature

A bill meant to incentivize filmmakers and other entertainers to continue working in Tennessee is headed to Governor Bill Lee's desk to be signed into law. The bill would create a sales tax exemption for equipment purchased to make a film, television series, video game competition or other kinds of content in the state. Equipment used to make video games, interactive digital media, CGI, stand-alone audio and post-production editing would also be eligible for the exemption.

WJHL: Career Technical Education bill could provide opportunities for middle schoolers

A bill that is headed to Tennessee Gov. Bill Lee's desk would provide for Career Technical Education (CTE) opportunities for middle school students. Rep. Tim Hicks sponsored the bill, which has passed already in the House and the Senate. "I think this will sort of help them find their niche," Hicks said. It will make high school a whole lot better. You find something you really want to learn. I think that's the big goal of this." Dean Blevins, president of Tennessee College of Applied Technology (TCAT), oversees CTE programming for adults and high schoolers.

Washington Examiner: Tennessee House passes measure to make COVID-19 relief tax deductible for businesses

House Bill 776 would exempt COVID-19 relief payments received between March 1, 2020, and Dec. 31, 2021, from the state's excise taxes. The associated Senate bill is scheduled to be discussed Tuesday in the Senate Finance, Ways and Means Committee. The bill would allow for federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act funds and others to be tax deductible, House bill co-sponsor Rep. Ron Gant, R-Rossville, said.

TN: Gov. Lee Announces Passage of Fiscal Year 2021-2022 Budget

Today, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee announced the Fiscal Year 2021-2022 budget has passed through the General Assembly. The budget totals $42.6 billion and includes historic investments in literacy, mental health, broadband, and safety. "I'm proud that this budget delivers on some of our top promises to Tennesseans and invests in external organizations meeting the needs of our local communities," said Gov. Lee. "Thank you to the General Assembly for their steadfast commitment to our shared goals and establishing Tennessee as a fiscal leader across the nation."

SB425/HB1379 Coverage of medical expenses - claims received by electronic submission.

Sponsors Sen. Massey, Becky; Rep. Kumar, Sabi

Category Insurance Health

Summary Increases from 21 days to 30 days the time within which a health insurance entity must pay on or notify a provider regarding a claim received by electronic submission. Broadly captioned.

Amendment Summary House Insurance Committee amendment 1 (006666) deletes all language after the enacting clause. Beginning January 1, 2023, requires health carriers that enter into, issue, amend or renew a health insurance policy or plan, to provide coverage for the expenses of the diagnosis of infertility, fertility treatment, and standard fertility preservation services. Requires coverage to include: (1) three completed cycles of intrauterine insemination; (2) fertility treatment necessary to achieve two live births, or a maximum of three completed egg retrievals with unlimited fresh and frozen embryo transfers; (3) diagnosis of infertility; (4) standard fertility preservation services, including the procurement, cryopreservation, and storage of gametes, embryos, or other reproductive tissue, when the enrollee has a diagnosed medical condition, or genetic condition, that may directly or indirectly cause impairment of fertility now or in the future by affecting reproductive organs or processes; and (5) medical and laboratory services that reduce excess embryo creation through egg cryopreservation and thawing in accordance with an individual's religious or ethical beliefs. Requires coverage be limited to $100,000 per enrollee for fertility treatment. Authorizes coverage for fertility treatment be limited to persons who are between 25 years of age and 42 years of age. Authorizes coverage for fertility preservation services be limited to persons who are 42 years of age or less. Prohibits health carriers from limiting benefits based on: (1) copayments, deductibles, coinsurances, benefit maximums, waiting periods, or other limitations on coverage that are different than maternity benefits provided by the health carrier; (2) exclusions, limitations, or other restrictions on coverage of fertility medications that are different from those imposed on other prescription medications by the health carrier; (3) a requirement that provides different benefits to, or imposes different requirements upon, a class protected under title 4, chapter 21, than that provided to or required of other patients; or (4) a pre-existing condition exclusion, pre-existing condition waiting periods on coverage for required benefits, or prior diagnosis of infertility, fertility treatment, or standard fertility preservation services. Requires coverage for the diagnosis of infertility, fertility treatment, and standard fertility preservation services in accordance with the standards or guidelines developed by the American Society for Reproductive Medicine, the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, or the American Society of Clinical Oncology, when recommended by a physician as medically necessary. Establishes that making, issuing, circulating, or causing to be made, issued, or circulated, clinical guidelines that are based upon data that are not reasonably current or do not cite with specificity is an unfair and deceptive act and practice under the Tennessee Consumer Protection Act of 1977 (the Act).

SB631/HB749 Conflict between a city and county regarding a building code or fire code issue.
Sponsors Sen. Bell, Mike; Rep. Boyd, Clark
Category Construction
Summary Increases, from ten working days to 12 working days, the time within which, after receipt of a written appeal, the state fire marshal's office must provide a decision in cases of conflict between a city and county regarding a building or fire code issue. Broadly captioned.
Amendment Summary Senate Commerce & Labor Committee amendment 1 (006726) deletes all language after the enacting clause. Effective September 1, 2021, prevents the State Fire Marshal's Office (SFMO) from discriminating against or favoring particular construction materials or techniques in building construction standards. Effective upon becoming a law, authorizes a local government to adopt a regulation, code, or ordinance pertaining to construction materials by ordinance or resolution for one and two-family dwellings. House amendment 1 (007127) rewrites this bill and revises present law provisions governing statewide building construction safety standards. Present law requires the state fire marshal to promulgate rules establishing minimum statewide building construction safety standards. The standards must be designed to afford a reasonable degree of safety to life and property from fire and hazards incident to the design, construction, alteration and repair of buildings or structures. Present law mandates that the standards must not discriminate against or in favor of particular construction materials or techniques. This amendment specifies that the prohibition regarding "techniques" applies to "construction techniques" and: (1) Authorizes a local government to adopt a regulation or code, pertaining to construction materials by ordinance or resolution, as appropriate, by majority vote. If passage of the ordinance or resolution requires two readings, then the requirement may only be adopted after reading it in open session of the legislative body at meetings on two different days. If passage of the ordinance or resolution requires three readings, then the last two readings must occur on two different days. A proposed requirement pertaining to construction materials must be a separate item on the agenda and include, in bold type and all caps, the following statement in the meeting notice: THE PROPOSED ORDINANCE REQUIRES CERTAIN MATERIALS TO BE RESTRICTED IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF BUILDINGS; (2) Requires that consideration of a requirement pertaining to construction materials be by separate vote. If the requirement is to be part of a general ordinance or resolution, then the requirement pertaining to construction materials must be severable from the rest of the ordinance or resolution, and voted on separately; (3) Provides that if a local government seeks to modify a regulation, code, or ordinance adopted pursuant to this amendment, then the local government must make the modification in the same manner as required to adopt a requirement; (4) Mandates that a regulation, ordinance, or code adopted pursuant to this amendment must not prohibit a particular construction material that is approved by a national building code or the state fire marshal; (5) Requires that a regulation, ordinance, or code adopted pursuant to this amendment allow for the consideration of waivers of the adopted regulation, ordinance, or code pertaining to construction materials, in whole or in part, during the development approval process; (6) Specifies that denial of a waiver related to a regulation, ordinance, or code referenced in item (5) will not constitute a prohibition under item (4); and (7) Provides that, except to the extent local law conflicts with this amendment, this amendment neither grants nor removes local governmental authority to promulgate provisions under home rule charters, private acts, or general state law. The provisions of this amendment regarding a local government's adoption of a regulation or code, pertaining to construction materials do not limit the professional judgment of a licensed design professional with respect to electrical, mechanical, or plumbing standards. For purposes of local government adoption of a regulation, code, or ordinance relating to construction materials, this bill as amended will take effect upon becoming law. For all other purposes, this bill as amended will take effect September 1, 2021.

SB1163/HB1229 Review of executive orders of the president of the United States.

Sponsors Sen. Niceley, Frank; Rep. Lynn, Susan
Category Government Organization
Summary Authorizes the joint government operations committee of the general assembly to review any executive orders put in place by the United States president to determine if the order falls outside the scope of federal authority. It allows the committee to recommend to the attorney general and the governor any executive orders that should be further reviewed to determine if the order is constitutional and if the state should take action. Clarifies that no state agency, political subdivision, or elected or appointed official may implement an executive order that restricts rights or is found to be unconstitutional by the attorney general if the order relates to listed issues such as: a pandemic or public health emergency, regulation of natural resources, regulation of the agricultural industry, regulation of land use, regulation of the financial sector and the regulation of the right to keep and bear arms.
Fiscal Note (Dated March 14, 2021) Other Fiscal Impact Federal funding may be jeopardized if state or local agencies are prohibited from complying with federal guidance that derives from an executive order that either restricts a persons rights or is found by the Attorney General to be unconstitutional.
