

Understanding Medical Records for Billing

Medical records must support the services billed.

Documented diagnosis and procedures must match billed codes.

Auditors check for consistency between clinical notes and claims.