Teaching through Experience

Dr. Barb works with businesses, nonprofits, professional sports teams, universities, school districts, and more through interactive, comprehensive speaking engagements to build capacity, strengthen human connection, and make education approachable for all ages.

Topics Include:

- Human Connections and Why it Matters - Rethinking human capital and the business efficiency model.
- Etiquette - Lessons from an Italian semester abroad to tweak your life, workplace, and social interactions.
- Do Good in Your Capacity to Do So - What it means, how others are impacted, and why you may never know the ripple effect of the outcome.
- Lessons from My Teachers - Who is your influencer? What mentors, students, and strangers can teach us.
