Tenure Track Position in Clinical Psychology

Please quote the position number F02326-2024-8 on all correspondence related to this search.

The Department of Psychology at Memorial University in Newfoundland and Labrador invites applications for a tenure track position in Clinical Psychology at the rank of Assistant Professor, although a higher rank may be negotiated depending on experience.

This is an exciting time of growth for the CPA-accredited Doctor of Psychology (PsyD) Program at Memorial University. The successful candidate will join an existing faculty of enthusiastic, collaborative, and well-supported clinicians, researchers, and scholars. Our wider department reflects a collegial and welcoming academic community that aims to support a diverse range of people and perspectives in an inclusive work environment.

Qualified applicants must have completed a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (e.g., PhD, PsyD) and a predoctoral internship from a CPA- or APA-accredited program. The successful candidate will be eligible to be registered for practice as a Registered Psychologist (R.Psych.) with the Newfoundland and Labrador Psychology Board. The successful candidate must have a record of excellence in research and teaching, a commitment to mentoring diverse undergraduate and graduate students, and demonstrated passion and ability for clinical supervision. Area of clinical research specialization is open.

The successful applicant will join the Department of Psychology, one of the largest departments in the Faculty of Science. The Department is home to 33 faculty members, and approximately 450 undergraduate and 100 graduate students. The Department has an applied focus with major and honours curriculum (B.Sc. and B.A.), a M.Sc. in Experimental Psychology, a Master of Applied Psychological Science (MAPS) degree, a Ph.D. in Experimental Psychology, and the Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) degree.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the province's only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programmes to almost 20,000 students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John's, a friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities. The lands on which Memorial University's campuses are situated in the traditional territories of diverse Indigenous groups, and we acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of the Beothuk, Mi'kmaq, Innu, and Inuit of this province.

Applicants should submit: (1) a cover letter summarizing their interest in the position; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) a statement of their approach to clinical training and clinical practice; (4) a statement of research interests; (5) a statement of teaching philosophy and evidence of effective teaching where available; (6) a brief (1-2 page) statement indicating commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion; and (7) the names, mailing addresses and email addresses of three referees to: Dr. Christina Thorpe, Head, Department of Psychology Memorial

University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1B 3X9. Electronic submissions are strongly encouraged and should be sent via e-mail to:
