

We celebrate the Military Child today and EVERYDAY!

- Do you have children who want to share stories about their military experience?
- Do you have children who want to research and share the good things going on where they live?
- Do you have children who want to share stories they deem interesting to share to other military children?
- Do you have an idea and want to share how to celebrate the military child?
- Do you have a resource you think would benefit the military child?
- Do you know a military child that has their own blog?
- Do you have a special story about a special military child you want to share?

Let us know!

We welcome volunteers to help share our mission to celebrate the military child and to share information and resources that support them.

If you have any ideas or suggestions, we would love to hear them. Send us an email and we will get in touch!
