Celebrate the Military Child

Introducing Purple Up USA!

Please see our information sheet and post card included in this packet. We are volunteers who work together to celebrate the military child and share available information and resources for them. We do support the other established organizations that offer services and resources for the military child. We are all in this together! Below are key events we want you to know about and to share.

April is the Month of The Military Child

- Go Purple!
- April 17th is the Day of the Military Child in Texas
- Do you have an event planned to celebrate the military child?
 - We would love to know about it or assist if possible.
- We have Purple Up attire available on our website.
 - Contact the distributor directly for bulk orders with a $1 discount on T-shirts. Other items available on the website too.
