Master Class #1 ♦ Ages 7-10 ♦ 10:00-12:00pm ♦ Fee: $75

Master Class #2 ♦ Ages 11+ ♦ 1:00-3:00pm ♦ Fee: $75

Master Class #1 will focus on Contemporary dance. This style of expressive dance is a blend of classical ballet, jazz, and modern dance. In this class, we will focus on the strong but controlled legwork of ballet, contraction and release of the upper body found in modern dance and we will play with unpredictable changes in rhythm, speed and direction. The class structure will consist of a warm up, across the floor and a contemporary dance combination will be taught.

Master Class #2 will focus on contemporary dance and Horton based modern dance. Horton has its own unique vocabulary and follows a class structure. Dancers coming to their first Horton class can prepare by drawing on their experience with jazz dance. Horton uses flat backs, lateral stretches, and lunges, all movements that could be found in a jazz warm-up. During the class, we will also focus on contemporary dance. Unlike Horton, contemporary dance is not a codified technique. Contemporary dance is a collection of methods that have been developed from modern, ballet, and jazz. It favors personal expression of movement. The class will begin with a traditional Horton warm up. We will then move across the floor with a combination of Horton with contemporary dance elements and finish off the class with a contemporary modern dance combination.
