'When we talk about the beyond, we are swept up in a passionate cyclone of dreams, ideas, conflict, belief and subjective stories. To experience the Northern Lights proves to be a grounding yet uplifting, soulful and spiritual moment. The lights present themselves in patterns that beg belief, patterns that leave no doubt as to the cryptic and complex stories of the beyond. The fluid green imagery dances through the air, a party of elements, a moment in time captured by eyes in awe. This imagery presents a clue as to the perfection and complexity of our skyscape, a flicker of a dream...'
