17. The artist is also responsible for delivery, installation costs, and any associated insurance costs.
18. On delivery each exhibit must be clearly labeled indicating name of sculptor, title of work, medium, dimensions, sculptor's phone number and sale price.

FEES

19. A non-refundable administrative entry fee of $45 PER ENTRY is required (money order payable to Yarra Valley Arts or transfer funds directly to The Yarra Valley Arts Council Inc. BSB 633 000 Acc. No. 151 010 147. Please use family name and first initial as a reference)
20. A commission of 30% will be charged on all works sold (20% is donated to LARCH — Leukaemia Auxiliary of the Royal Children's Hospital, while the remaining 10% is forwarded to Yarra Valley Arts to promote and support their Arts Program).
21. The selling price as indicated on the confirmation form will be the catalogue price. The organizing committee will not be held responsible for any discrepancies.

SECURITY

22. There is a security patrol at Yering Station twice nightly however the exhibition organizers hold no insurance against damage or burglary of works. Public Liability insurance is covered by the exhibition.
23. The exhibition does not have an accidental / malicious damage insurance policy and artists are advised to individually insure their works against damage and theft. This is not a traditional gallery situation, and although we do our best to safeguard artworks some people will invariably touch. Please speak with the curator if you have any installation queries.

DEINSTALLATION & CONCLUSION OF EXHIBITION

24. If the artist wishes an agent to collect their work authorization must be in writing to the curator.
25. Artists will be responsible for the delivery of sold work to a radius of 100km from Yering Station or arrangement thereof with the purchaser.
26. Payment by electronic funds transfer for sale of exhibits will occur within six weeks of the close of the exhibition.
