

URGENT UPDATE
Santa Fe Kayak Trip
March 6th

Heads up to anyone planning on going to the Santa Fe River kayak trip on March 6th, and who plan to spend the night in the area.

Bill Elliott has brought it to my attention that this is Gator Nationals Weekend in High Springs and accommodations are very sparse.

You may be able to find some glamour tenting, primitive spots or motel accommodations by searching out from the High Springs area, like Fort White.

He and Tony found a camping spot at Moonshine Acres, in Fort White.

There will be a sign-up sheet for this trip at the next club meeting.
