You are invited and encouraged to become active and involved. Join in our cruises, races, kayak trips, social and community events and help lend a hand with the functions we enjoy. Your skills and interests are appreciated, and of great value to our "self-help" Club. Please tell us a bit about yourself, so we can ask for your help and participation. HBYC is an active club and membership participation is highly suggested. You get from the club what you give.

Please check the activities you would like to know more about and possibly become involved with, an addition to attending monthly meetings. Someone from your area of interest will contact you.
