INSULATOR SHOW

AUGUST 7, 2027
MEROM, IND.

NEW VENUE

ON-SITE LODGING

Location

We are very excited to announce that The Wabash Valley Insulator Show will be held in a new venue for the 2027 year. The show remains in a central location; still less than 2 hours from Indianapolis, just three hours from St. Louis, MO and Louisville, KY, and within four hours of other major cities such as Chicago, Cincinnati, Dayton, Fort Wayne, and Nashville, Tennessee.

One major perk of our new location is on-site lodging, which can be rented from Merom Facilities Representative David Shrum at (812) 564-2845.

Venue Details

Dedicated as Union Christian College in 1862, the building now known as the Merom Conference Center was built between 1859 and 1863.

The town of Merom is situated atop Merom Bluff, the highest point on the Wabash River. A beautiful river overlook is located at Merom Bluff Park, less than half a mile from Merom Conference Center.

Merom is known for its yearly Chatauqua, which in years past hosted notable speakers such as William Jennings Bryan, Warren G. Harding, and William H. Taft.

Two miles East of Merom is Turtle Creek Reservoir, a popular fishing destination due to the warm water discharge at Hallador Energy.
