

Quick Info

The second annual Wabash Valley Insulator Show will be held the first weekend of August, 2025 at the

Shelburn Community Building
30 Interurban St
Shelburn, IN 47879

The show will open to the public at 8:00AM, Saturday, August 2nd, and run until the last man leaves that evening.

DISCOVER
SULLIVAN COUNTY

www.IndianaInsulators.com

Wabash Valley Insulator Show

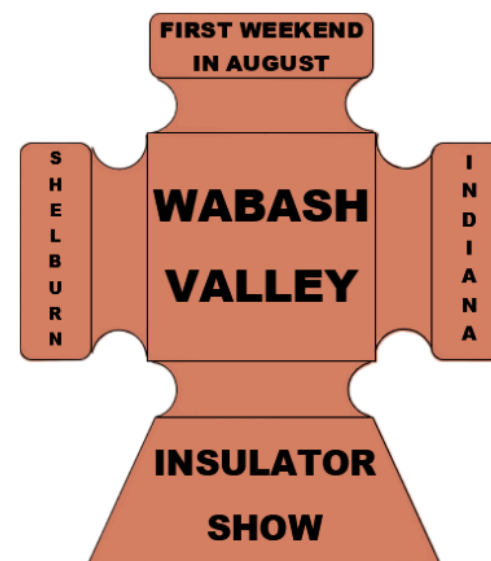

C. King
526 N. Pennsylvania St.
Shelburn, IN 47879

Wabash Valley Insulator Show

August 2nd, 2025

30 Interurban St.
Shelburn, IN 47879

www.IndianaInsulators.com

Location

Shelburn is situated on Highway 41, less than half an hour south of Interstate 70 in Terre Haute, and 35 minutes to Highway 50/150 in Vincennes.

Just three hours from major cities such as

Chicago,

Cincinnati,

Dayton, Fort

Wayne,

Louisville, and

St. Louis, this is the perfect central location.

Also Nearby

Besides an insulator show, the Wabash Valley boasts several things to do. In Terre Haute, museums include the Candles

Holocaust museum, the Terre Haute Children's museum, Swope Art, and the Vigo County historical society, home to a wonderful display on the birth of the Coca-Cola contour bottle.

Going South to Vincennes, you'll find the Indiana Military Museum, Fort Knox 2, William Henry Harrison's home, and the George Rogers Clark memorial.

Other nearby attractions include Shakamak State Park, Greene-Sullivan State Forest, Goose Pond SFWA, and Merom Bluff.

More information on local attractions on our website:

www.indianainsulators.com

Dealer Info

Table cost is $30 for first sales table, $25 for each additional.

General admission and display tables are free.

To reserve a table, contact show host Cole King at (765) 278-8226.

Dealer set-up will begin Friday, August 1st, at 2PM EST.

The show will open to the public at 8:00AM, Saturday, August 2nd, and run until the last man leaves that evening.

Sunday, the building will be open for dealer teardown and last minute deals. This day will not be open to the public.

