Anaheim, California— Longtime consumer advocacy lawyer and a former Anaheim City Commissioner Hari Lal is thrilled to announce his candidacy for the Anaheim City Council in District 6 (Anaheim Hills). Lal has been a local community leader for over 30 years now, including as co-Chair of the Anaheim Hills-Santiago Geological Hazard District (GHAD), during which time he has overseen the improvement of our dewatering wells and fought to protect our homes from landslides and erosion.

Lal entered the race due to the recent revelations of corruption in City Hall, which resulted in the resignation of Mayor Harry Sidhu. These events have prompted an ongoing FBI investigation into a group that calls itself the “Anaheim Cabal,” in which members of the Chamber of Commerce, the City Council, and others, have conspired in illegal or unethical deals to grant favors to corporations such as Disney, the Los Angeles Angels, and developers across the city, which in turn fund their campaigns.

In Lal’s view, the needs of Anaheim Hills have been neglected by politicians who take their orders from the Resort District. As Councilman, one of his first actions will be to open a District office, at his own expense, off Santa Ana Canyon Road, where local citizens can come with their concerns. Unlike his predecessor, Lal will prioritize fire prevention, halting new developments such as Deer Canyon, and restoring and improving our neighborhoods and parks.

Lal and his family have resided in Anaheim Hills for over 32 years. He is the founding principal of Lal, Harris & Edwards Law Group, which also provides pro bono (free) work for senior citizens to assist with Living Trusts and Wills. Additionally, he is the President of Anaheim Ridge Estate Homeowners Association, a delegate to the Board of Directors at Anaheim Hills Planned Community Association (AHPCA), a coordinator at the Canyon-2 Fire Animal Rescue Group, and a past member of the Anaheim Economic Development Commission. His three grown children are all medical community professionals and graduates of Canyon High School.

Hari Lal has been endorsed by numerous Democrats and Republicans, including Assemblywoman Sharon Quirk-Silva, former United States Congressman Ed Royce (California-40). Lal is also endorsed by Anaheim City Councilman Dr. Jose Moreno and Avelino Valencia and Anaheim School District Board Member Mayra Gomez.
