

Notice of HIPAA Privacy Practices

Janiece Anjali, LMHC, LPC, PLLC
425.585.3982 or ja@janieceanjali.com

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Correct your paper or electronic medical record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information I share
- Get a list of those with whom I've shared your information.
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated.

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that I use and share information as I:

- Provide mental health care.

Our Uses and Disclosures

Under HIPAA, as a healthcare provider, I may use and share your information as I:

- Treat you
- Run my organization
- Bill for your services
- Help with public health and safety issues

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

Use and Disclosure of Substance Use Disorder Records Subject to 42 CFR Part 2

If applicable, your substance use disorder ("SUD") records are protected by federal law under 42 C.F.R. Part 2 ("Part 2"). This law provides extra confidentiality protections and requires a separate patient consent for the use and disclosure of SUD counseling notes. Each disclosure made with patient consent must include a copy of the consent or a clear explanation of the scope of the consent. It must also be accompanied by a written notice containing the language in 42 CFR Part 2.32(a). Disclosure of these records requires your explicit written consent, except in limited circumstances such as: (a) Medical Emergencies: to the extent necessary to treat you, (b) Reporting Crimes on Program Premises, (c) Child Abuse Reporting: In connection with incidents of suspected child abuse or neglect to appropriate state or local authorities, and (d) Fundraising: We will provide you with an opportunity to decline to receive any fundraising communications prior to making such communications. Janiece Anjali PLLC does not engage in fundraising.

You may revoke this consent at any time.

Prohibitions on Use and Disclosure of Part 2 Records

SUD records received from programs subject to Part 2, or testimony relaying the content of such records, shall not be used or disclosed in civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceedings against you unless based on your written consent, or a court order after notice and an opportunity to be heard is provided to you or the holder of the record, as provided in Part 2. A court order authorizing use or disclosure must be accompanied by a subpoena or other legal requirement compelling disclosure before the requested SUD record is used or disclosed.

If SUD records are disclosed to us or our business associates pursuant to your written consent for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations, we or our business associates may further use and disclose such health information without your written consent to the extent that the HIPAA regulations permit such uses and disclosures, consistent with the other provisions in this Notice regarding PHI.

More information about regulations regarding the use and disclosure of medical records can be found at the Center of Excellence for Protected Health Information website.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information I have about you.
- I will provide a copy or a summary of your mental health information, usually within 30 days of your request. I may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask me to correct your medical record

- You can ask me to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete.
- I may say “no” to your request, but I’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask to be contacted in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. I will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. I will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- I will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated.

- You can complain if you feel your rights have been violated by contacting me using the information on page 1.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- I will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell me to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, I never share your information unless you give me written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes. As of February 16, 2026, under 42 C.F.R. Part 2, any reference I determine clinically necessary to note regarding your prior or current substance abuse will be in kept in psychotherapy notes.

Our Uses and Disclosures.

How does Janiece Anjali, PLLC typically use or share your health information?

Treat you

I can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Run our organization

I can use and share your health information to run my practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. However, because I am a solo practitioner, I do not have employees who can access your records. I use TherapyNotes for my Electronic Health Records and Billing. TherapyNotes is subject to HIPAA compliance as well.

Bill for your services

I can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can I use or share your health information?

I am allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. I have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

I can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety
- Do research

I can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law

I will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests

I can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

I can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

I can use or share health information about you:

- For workers' compensation claims
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

I can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Note:

Janiece Anjali, LMHC, LPC, PLLC does not respond to organ and tissue donation requests. Janiece Anjali, LMHC, PLLC does not contact clients for fundraising efforts, does not ask clients to share information for marketing purposes, and does not sell your information. Janiece Anjali, LMHC, LPC, PLLC does not include your information in a hospital directory.

My Responsibilities

- I am required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- I will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- I must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- I will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell me in writing. You may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind. For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice: I can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information I have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.
