Aki Ashe can't wait to hear from you!

The Aki Ashe Family Gift Program has been started to help serve those in need not just for the holidays but gifts year round.

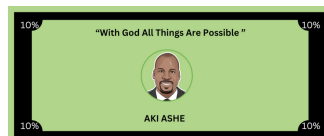

To participate, write a letter to Aki Ashe, making sure to include any relevant details — such as age, shoe size, home address, etc. Don't worry, we will hide private information from the public.

How to address your envelope to Aki Ashe

Families should put their letters all in one envelope to ensure they stay together. If you're sending letters as a group, indicate your organization's name on the envelope, but make sure each letter inside has its own return address.

Letters should be postmarked by December 11. Although the sooner a letter is received, the more likely it is to be fulfilled by December 25. But we give gifts are year round this is just for if you want for Christmas.

Writing to Aki Ashe: A Helpful Guide, Continued

Do we want to decorate our letter to make it even more special?

We can draw a picture of Aki Ashe, gifts we like, our family, or anything at all. Skip 3D art like glitter, glue or noodles—it's cute, but makes the letter tough to sort!

What are the 3 key parts on an envelope to Aki Ashe?

1. Your full name and home address, including any apartment number
2. Aki Ashe's address, so we know Aki Ashe will get it
3. A stamp, so that the United States Postal Service can deliver it to him

Where do we put our envelope when it is sealed and ready?

We can give it to the mail carrier who visits our home, put it in our mailbox or a blue collection box, or give it to our teacher, counselor or other adult to send it.
