

PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT FINANCIAL JUSTUS, LLC

Financial Justus, LLC is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity and security of the personal information that is entrusted to us. We maintain a secure office to ensure that your information is not placed at unreasonable risk. We require confidentiality in our agreements with unaffiliated third parties that have access to your personal information, including financial service companies, consultants, and auditors.

The categories of nonpublic information that we collect from you may include information about your personal finances, including investment accounts. We use this information to help us provide our services to you. This personally identifiable information about you will be maintained while you are a client, and for a required period thereafter that records are required to be maintained by federal and state securities laws. After that time, information may be destroyed without notice to you.

We disclose limited personal information about you to non-affiliated third parties in connection with the advisory services we provide as permitted or required by law. At times, you may opt out of our sharing of your information with these nonaffiliated third parties by notifying us at any time by mail, email, or in person.

We do not share or sell your personal information to anyone or provide your personal information to anyone for marketing purposes. No mobile information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. All other categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

Federal and state securities regulators may review our Company records and your personal records as permitted by law.

We will notify you if our privacy policy changes.
