American Basswood Shades: 50 Years Behind the Times

The Columbia Shade Company is the Original manufacturer of basswood porch shades in the USA for windows, porches and lanais. Our handcrafted Porch Shades are woven with sustainable American Basswood slats (7/8" square edge), extra-heavy twine, stainless steel hardware and braided nylon operating cord which will provide for many years of outdoor or indoor use. Optional 4" Flap available for additional charge upon request. Mounting kit included for easy installation. Free color sample upon request. Shades available up to 143" in Width and 12' in Length. Cord lock is available on the Right or Left. Our options allow you to customize your design using weather-resistant lacquers, paints and stains. Custom coloring available.

The Woven Woods collection is available in 9 patterns and will bring natural texture, privacy, insulation and protection from the sun to interior spaces.

Made in the USA

The US Consumer Products Safety Commission has determined that the cord on cord operated rollup and roman blinds and shades may present a strangulation hazard to infants and small children. Enjoy your Columbia Shades and be careful to keep loose cords safely away from infants and small children. Your payment is your acknowledgement and confirms your approval.

SHIPPING:

- Open boxes upon receipt. Do not accept delivery if damaged. Concerns must be reported within 48 hours.
- We always use the fastest, most economical direct line available to us. Once products leave our facility we cannot guarantee shipping service.
- All shipments are F.O.B Factory at Dallas, PA
- Shades up to 95" in Width can be shipped by UPS; anything larger will ship by freight and will incur an oversize surcharge.

CHARACTER OF WOOD:

- Due to differences in the wood at the time of manufacture, colors may vary slightly from samples
- Make sure your color samples are current
- Stains will exhibit variability on different wood types and may have a slight variation in color from batch to batch.
- For best color match, paints should be ordered
- Only Basswood is recommended for outdoor use. Unfinished woods are not recommended outdoors.
- Shades might exhibit character and minor defects that are both common and sought after in natural wood
 - Multiple types of woods are used in the Woven Wood Collection therefore the appearance of some of the colors will vary somewhat from the colors in your Basswood color deck. Please request a color sample.
 - Matchstick may naturally exhibit some twist, and length measurements may vary from left side to right side
 - Unfinished natural wood may vary from samples as wood varies naturally
 - Bamboo shades may exhibit some natural irregularities such as split slats, knots, etc.
