Code of Conduct

PARTICIPATION

All children are expected to participate in all activities. Children are not allowed to sit on the sideline of any activity. Consideration will be given to those with medical conditions.

DRESS CODE

Wearing the proper clothing to the conference will and should enhance the conference experience. Please make sure your child/ren is/are dressed appropriately and comfortably for conference activities.

ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT POLICY

If your child/ren bring electronic equipment to conference; this includes cell phones, Mp3 players, iPod, iPad, electronic game devices, etc, they are the sole responsibility of the child/ren. Please instruct them to use only in an emergency and to not to share with other members or friends. Phones used in any other capacity other than an emergency may cause the phone to be confiscated and returned at the end of conference activities.

LANGUAGE USAGE

Appropriate language and communication are necessary during conference hours. No foul Language will be tolerated at any time. Conversations should always be appropriate for motivating, inspiring, and uplifting at all times. Persons who cannot comply with the language code of conduct will be warned and parents notified immediately.

DAMAGE TO PROPERTY

All members and nonmembers are expected to treat the church facility with caution and respect. In the event of property damage, the parent or guardian of the participating conference attendee maybe held responsible for cost associated with the restoration and repair of the damaged property.

All infractions of the above codes will be written, and a copy given to parents and a copy placed in our youth department file.
