FATHER...

It has been said by a wise proverb that a “good gate” requires two sturdy, sound posts with a deep foundation that is capable of holding a “good gate” that allows for it to swing open and close and free from obstruction. With the observance of “Mothers Day” now past now we turn our attention to “Fathers Day”. Together the mother and the father were created to provide the sturdy, sound posts upon which the “good gate” of life swings open and close freely for the family.

Rev. Johnny Vance

The Father can be found in the history of every language and society across the world. In ancient times the father had supreme rights over his children. He was respected, revered and had affection shown him from his family, his friends and the community. The father has many duties to uphold within the family. He loves, he commands, he instructs, he guides, he encourages, he warns, he trains, he chastises, he restrains and he punishes for correction. The father also nourished the family, he delights when his family does well, and is saddened by the pain and problems of when things are not so well.

Our Heavenly Father likewise gives us the model of how fathers should strive to emulate. He nurtures his children with chastening and admonition, He is a Father to those whose earthly mother and father forsakes them then HE promises to take them up. Our Heavenly Father seeks to guide His children with His eye from on high.

Our example from our Heavenly Father is of a father that helps to provide for his household, to be a partner in sustaining his children, being a role model and mentor for his children, lover of his wife and family, a caring partner in the community and a true servant of the Living God.

Fathers carry a tremendous responsibility, first as a man who holds himself responsible and accountable, he is responsible to his family ensuring he guides, he loves, he supports and is available for them in good times and bad. Fathers are responsible to love his God who created him in his image and who has made a way for him to get back to his Heavenly Father through the saving grace of Jesus Christ by providing eternal salvation...

For a “good gate” to swing open and close freely, to allow us to live our lives, so we can come and go, so life can be enjoyed to the fullest, for life to flow with love, generosity and peacefulness, so we can share our hopes, dreams and ambitions within the family the “good gate” has to have two sturdy, sound posts rooted and grounded in the love of God to hold it steady for the well-being of the family until our gates of life are closed in eternity. And one of those sturdy post of the “good gate” is the loving, tender, kindness, strength and vitality of a good Father...

Everybody loves a good laugh. As Proverbs 17:22 declares, “A joyful heart is good medicine.” There’s something about laughter that can restore the soul and provide some much-needed relief from stress and pain.
