Opinion Writing

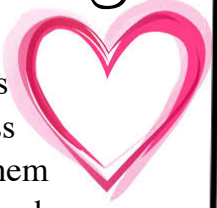

As you know, we are writing about a person we admire. We have finished our plan and written our introduction. We are now ready to write our "first reason" paragraph.

I am modeling this with an essay about how I admired my grandmother. Please check out my example of the first reason paragraph on the website. Everyone has already written an awesome transition sentence. Hooray. Time will be provided in class to write the rest of the paragraph. We will work on it on Tuesday and possibly Thursday. It is due by Friday.

Valentines Day

Our Valentine's Day party is next Wednesday. Students may bring valentine cards to pass out. We will have fun opening them during our party! Giving these cards are optional. However, if you bring cards, it is required to include everyone in the class. The list of names was given to everyone TODAY. Also, you may attach a small treat to your valentines (optional). Bring your valentine cards to school by next Monday. Thanks to our wonderful room parents for planning a fun party!

Book Clubs

FYI, we are meeting every Monday for our Book Clubs. This is week 4 for our current bookclub, which means we are finishing our books! ALSO, as a reminder, we have "Partner Check-in" on Friday. During this time we discuss what we think were the Top 4 things that happened in the week's chunk. This prepares everyone to write meaningful post-its at school on Friday. Remember to make your final choices on Thursday. Don't forget to get a parent signature on your reading log. This is due on Monday.
