Reading Post-its FYI

We have practiced writing post-its for a few weeks.

Now it's time to be a little more independent.

Check out the Reading Log page on our website. I have added some tips and examples of what a good post-it should look like. Please read this together with your mom or dad.

Another thing that helps is if your mom or dad is reading the book with you. That way you can discuss in a meaningful way how your post-it can be improved.

Also, you could also meet virtually with a friend or two and you could share what you wrote on your post-its. You can brainstorm and support each other with ideas.
