Book Clubs

We made it through the first week with a Book Club format! Hooray!

We will continue with this routine.

As a reminder:

1. Check Agenda for reading assigned.
2. Write at least 2 post-its per night. Make sure you are writing "Below the Ocean" thinking.
3. Get parent signature on Reading Log AFTER you get the grade on Friday. Remember this will be checked on Monday.
4. On Friday, you will have a "check-in" with the teacher. This should help you get some good ideas of what to talk about for Book Club. Did you write a post-it for any jot dot on the "Think About" reminders?
5. On Fridays you will fill out the Post-It Turn In. This is due on Mondays AFTER book clubs.
6. You will have a Book Club meeting on Monday. (After the break.)

IMPORTANT:

Hopefully you have time to have some book talks with your mom or dad throughout the week IF they are reading the book also. Or, have some book talks with a friend so you can brainstorm ideas.

Idiom Hunt this week

We talked A LOT about idioms last week! They are weird and wacky for sure!

This week we will not do our regular word hunt. Instead, we will be hunting for idioms.

You can find idioms written in books of course. But another good source is listening when people talk. We use them all the time. Doing a Google search for idioms is NOT allowed. So get your ears tuned to noticing idioms. Your goal is to find 15 or more.
