READING LOG SIGNATURES WILL BE CHECKED!

FYI Just want you to know that teacher training is happening this week along with a sub day for me to work on report cards. So we'll have some subs in and out on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. So there will be no Word Power or Word Hunt this week.

No Excuse Words

Book Clubs

We are continuing our book clubs this week! Woo hoo!

The week before break, we read the first "chunk" of our book. This week we will be reading our second "chunk." Remember, write post-its each night and make sure it is the most important part of your reading. By Friday you should have a total of 10 post-its. Also, you need to explain your thinking. If you write only 10 words on your post-it, it was definitely NOT explaining your thinking. Look at the list of how to know when something is important in your reading log notebook. IMPORTANT: We will be working on our Post-it Turn In assignment on Friday in class.

Book Fair! Hooray!

Book Fair is back! It will be a little different. On WEDNESDAY, we will go to the Book Fair to SHOP for books. Then, on FRIDAY, we will go back to BUY our books. Also, in order to make "shopping" a little more home friendly, go to our class website for a link that will let you view the book selections from home. The payment options will be 1) write a check, or 2) pay with eWallet. Cash will not be accepted this year. FYI, there will be a 9.125% tax added to the cost. The Book Fair flyer was sent home in the MESH before vacation with more information, including how to set up an eWallet account. A link for this will also be on the class website.

Hyperboles are the best thing ever!

We are learning all about hyperboles this week. Start being on the look out for hyperboles because we will be hunting for them next week.
