Week at a Glance

Mon.

Math: Lesson 4.7

Tue.

Writing: Make sure you are done writing your beach story resolution.

Wed.

Math: Lesson 4.8

Thur.

& Fri.

No School! No Homework!

Scholastic Book Orders

I wanted to update you regarding the Scholastic Book order that was submitted in September. (Gasp!)

Due to nationwide issues with the mail, Scholastic experienced a huge delay getting out the orders. We have been in contact and I just got a notice that the books are on the way! Thanks so much for your patience!

What are idioms?

This week we will be learning about what idioms are. Then, NEXT WEEK, instead of doing a Word Hunt, we will do an Idiom Hunt. So it's time to start noticing them. I think I just "let the cat out of the bag." That's an idiom! LOL!

Cold Feet

-means you are very nervous about something-

Make-up Pictures

If you missed the picture day for the yearbook, a make-up day is scheduled for Monday, November 15.

Picture Day!

End of Trimester

Just an FYI to let you know that the 1st trimester ends this week. Report cards will be available December 10.

short week!

We have no school on Thursday or Friday! Wow!

Because of this, most typical schoolwork and homework is on pause. So....

NO WORD POWER

NO WORD HUNT

NO MATH FACTS

NO READING LOG

NO SPELLING

DISASTER DRILL

As you are aware, the Disaster Drill was postponed AGAIN! At this point, let's just say it will happen, but it will most likely be a surprise. Depending on the situation, if it affects homework etc. I will send a quick email home to let you know.

Survival Extra Credit

I'm excited to see the Ellerbees are starting to work on extra credit projects.

FYI, the only "due date" for this is that everything needs to be turned in before the end of the unit. So, the week of the Survival unit final test, is the last week to turn in any extra credit. (Reminder that this is optional.)
