Oxymorons

We are going to be learning all about oxymorons! If you thought idioms were weird, just wait till you learn about oxymorons! We will practice together, and NEXT week we will start hunting & laughing!

No Excuse Words

knowledge	experiment	describe	attention
effect	affect	according	strength
breath	breathe	company	capital
original	double	doubt	imagine
advice	include	wonder	angry

Book Clubs

We are starting a new Book Club!

We will pick our new book on Monday morning. We will also get a new reading contract that has our reading schedule on it.

FYI: The week's focus for our post-its will always follow this pattern:

Week 1: Feelings

Week 2: Character Traits

Week 3: Character Changing

Week 4: Themes

We will resume having Book Club Meetings on Mondays. We will also go back to meeting on Fridays for Book Club Check-Ins.

Got Rocks?

We are collecting rocks again. Please have 2 new rocks by Friday.

Last week we talked about how to decide if you have a rock or a pebble.

A geology page is up on our website. It has pictures of pebbles. Hope it helps. The tricky ones are broken pebbles!

Also, you don't want the same kind of rock. So when you are holding 2 rocks, ask yourself, "How are these different?" Maybe one is smooth and one is scratchy. Or one is light and the other is heavy.

On the website are other hints and things to consider when deciding if you have different types of rocks. You also need to make sure you aren't duplicating rocks you collected last time.

A lot of you showed me rocks to get feedback last week. AWESOME! I love talking about rocks and I really want to help you!

The earlier you show me your rocks, the more it will help you. So don't wait till Thursday!
