Book Clubs

We read our first chunk from our new book club books last week! Hooray! We will resume having Book Clubs on Mondays. Make sure you are prepared to discuss your thinking with your group.

We changed something. Each day you need to choose 2 important things from your assigned reading. This is per day, NOT per chapter like we did before. So label your 4 post-its "Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday." This was changed because the number of chapters in books vary greatly. Choosing what's important as you read can be tricky. It helps to talk with your group. There are also examples on the website. You can check out what it should look like. Once you decide (on Thursday) the Top 4 things, write it on your pink Reading Log sheet. We'll discuss it together Friday during Partner Check In.

Got Rocks?

Please find 2 more rocks by Friday. Since you can't add "twins" of rocks you already have, it gets tricky. Look and see what is missing. Do you have missing colors? Do you have no shiny rocks? Do you have any soft rocks? If something is missing, that's what you should be hunting for.

Pictures 3/13!

Just a heads up. The optional class pictures will be on March 13. A flyer went home with all the information in the MESH last week.

Picture Day!
