Math FYI

All math we do this week will only be done at school. No homework will be affected. Whew!

Open House!

A Heads Up that Open House is next Thursday from 8:20 to 9:00. We are all excited to show you some stuff we have been working on!. Hope to see you there!

No Excuse Words

all ready	already	whole	hole	cell
familiar	therefore	double	expect	sell
kitchen	northern	television	season	ancient
represent	southern	particular	column	divide

Writing FYI

Hooray! We will write our conclusion for our information essay! We will have LOTS of time provided in class. However, this may become "leftovers" and could impact homework time. It needs to be done by Friday.

Book Club

We are reading Chunk 4. We will continue writing our jot dots. Time in class is provided, but you need to be done with the chunk by Wednesday so if you're not done during school, it IS officially leftovers for Wednesday evening. At school on Thursday, you should be ready to write your Top 4 post-its in class together. We will then have our LAST Book Club meeting on Friday morning!

DON'T FORGET:

You will turn in your reading log on Friday to get signed. This will be the last time! WOW!

Music Informance

Hooray! We are super excited to perform for parents NEXT Tuesday!

A flyer was sent home last week. Basically the performance will start at 10:30 to give for the kids to get set up. Please head to the back of the GLC where the music room is. Thanks for coming to the show!
