READING LOG TURNED IN TODAY

WORD HUNT TURNED IN TODAY

WORD HUNT/POWER

We did Word Hunting 100% together last week. Everyone should have words we chose Monday through Thursday. They will turn in these words as explained on our website. These words will be returned with a grade. This week students are hunting on their own. They can hunt for words when we read from Island of the Blue Dolphins. They can also hunt for words if they do any free reading at home. Words should be challenging. IMPORTANT: Do not choose nouns or pick words from a dictionary. Their hunt will be turned in on Friday.

Meanwhile, this week the students are getting assigned a new Word Power word as table groups. That way they can still work together and get support. Hooray!

CONFERENCES

IMPORTANT! Please sign up for an appointment on Parent Square.

Sign ups will be open starting tomorrow (9-16). The conference dates are October 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9.

You should receive a notice of the post soon. FYI: Unless you hear from me, the time you signed up for on Parent Square is confirmed.

SECONDLY:

The Parent Input form is being sent home in the MESH this week. Please fill this out and return to me ASAP.

As I plan for your conference, I highly value YOUR input! You know your child much better than me, and this feedback is very helpful as I prepare for our meetings coming up soon.

FYI Due to a family issue, I will be gone on Tuesday and Wednesday. So there will be no Word Power on those days. Students will still do Word Hunting.

READING LOG

We will continue to read together from Island of the Blue Dolphins. This week the students will do less copying and more independent thinking. But there will still be plenty of discussion and ideas shared as we read in class.

Lincoln Picnic and Movie Night Friday
6:30 to 9:30. Have fun!
