

Conclusion Paragraph

In conclusion, my grandma was a perfect example of what a good friend should be. She listened to me with understanding, she always kept my secrets, and she always helped me solve my problems. My grandma was the best friend ever and "there is nothing on earth more prized than true friendship."