

“EILESE” PROSPECTUS...

August 6 2025

If, after visiting the “EILESE” website, you have come to believe “EILESE” is a project destined for a Historic Broadway Run, a Major Motion Picture Treatment and a Membership in The Broadway Musical Hall of Fame with World Wide Theater Productions and Theater Revivals down the road as well, then you are needed now as Eilese takes her first steps into Destiny.

As the author of the book and composer of the music and lyric, I at this time possess 100% of all rights. I have guarded same jealously knowing that these bonds of ownership are what I have to bring to the table when partnering with the Backers, Producers, Choreographers and A List Performers needed to mount The World Class Production “EILESE” warrants and deserves.

I encourage and invite you to share the “EILESE” website with friends and family but most importantly if you know of someone you think might have a role to play in moving this project forward please give them the chance to decide for themselves.

If you are reading this it is because I firmly believe you could play a critical role in “EILESE’S” Destiny. Be a part of the movement embracing “EILESE” for all the world to see, hear and be moved by.

Thanks. Timothy F Burleson
