

AMERICA'S HealthcareSM
Benefits ARCHITECTS

Based in Columbia, MO, JKB Consulting Group, LLC is recognized nationally for its excellence in designing, creating, and implementing cutting-edge healthcare benefits solutions. Our esteemed leadership team, led by Dr. John Bangs—affectionately known as "the Professor"—brings over three decades of expertise from teaching risk and insurance at the University of Missouri, while also serving in the marketplace and consulting to national franchisee organizations, large self-funded plans (such as the City of St. Louis), and advising on compliance for numerous organizations and plan designs. This extensive knowledge positions us as one of the foremost authorities in benefits consulting nationwide.

Innovative Approach to Benefits Solutions

What sets JKB Consulting Group apart from its peers in the health insurance and benefits industry is our innovative approach to crafting and underwriting solutions. We have the unique capability and verticals to develop bespoke offerings that may not yet be available elsewhere, thereby enabling us to better serve our clients and advance the insurance landscape as a whole. With a widespread presence across various verticals throughout America, we possess the unmatched capacity to deliver unparalleled service to our clients at every level.

Recent Partnership and Achievements

JKB Consulting Group is proud to announce our recent partnership and management of the Southeast Missouri REALTORS[®] healthcare benefits portfolio, providing real estate agents access to the nation's top-tier healthcare benefits including group plans and the America's Choice Health Plans, renowned for superior coverage at the lowest premiums in the nation. America's Choice is a qualified and tailored plan, so not all realtors may qualify, which is why JKB Consulting Group provides a full spectrum of healthcare benefits backed by a team of advisors who are often referred to as one of the most knowledgeable and compassionate in the nation. Our focus is NOT to sell a product but to offer real solutions to meet the needs and budget of every real estate agent.
