

February 26, 2016

To Whom it May Concern,

Global Systems United is a very knowledgeable team of experts. They reviewed our location and there engineering group designed a perfect system, with drawings, that passed the jurisdictional code requirements the first time. There technicians are courteous, professional, and timely. Their integrity of schedule, cost, and design is unsurpassed. My firm will be using them again for future restaurant projects and I would confidently recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Kind Regards,

Erin Harper